Introduction

The Royal Australian & New Zealand College of Psychiatrists (RANZCP) would like to provide the opportunity for three Māori medical students to attend the 2022 New Zealand Conference to be held at the Millennium Hotel in Queenstown, 26-28 September. The RANZCP is committed to supporting the recruitment and training of Māori psychiatrists.

The sponsorship includes Conference registration (including social events), travel to and from Queenstown, and accommodation if required. Further conference information can be found on the RANZCP 2022 NZ Conference Website

Please note previous recipients of this full sponsorship opportunity are ineligible.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the RANZCP sponsorship you must be:

- A Māori medical student at a New Zealand Medical School
- Available 26-28 September 2022
- Be a member of RANZCP's Psychiatry Interest Forum \(PIF\)

Application and Selection Process

- RANZCP will advertise and promote the sponsorship opportunity throughout its membership and networks.
- Potential candidates will submit:
 1. The attached application form
 2. Confirmation from your Phase Director (or equivalent) that you are eligible
 3. A brief CV
 4. A cover letter demonstrating your interest in psychiatry
- RANZCP will assess all applications and select successful candidates. Applications will be assessed on:
 1. Demonstrated interest in psychiatry
 2. Academic background
 3. Commitment to Māori health outcomes

Requirements

The three successful applicants will be expected to attend the entire Conference and participate in the academic and social programmes. They will also be required to provide a post-conference written report to RANZCP.

Application Deadline

The deadline for applications is Friday 13th May 2022 and successful students will be notified as soon as possible after this date.

Please send your completed application form, with all required information attached to: nzoffice@ranzcp.org

If you have any questions, please call RANZCP Katherine Minett on 04 472 7247 or email nzoffice@ranzcp.org
